

KAREN LAVERDIERE is the vice president of consulting services & operations for The Evans Consulting Group, Inc. (ECG), a professional services consulting firm specializing in financial aid operations.

In her current position, Karen oversees the delivery of consulting services to ECG's clients, manages contract obligations and coordinates the scheduling of ECG's consulting services staff. Prior to joining ECG in 2007, Karen worked for 18 years in financial aid positions at Wayne State University, Concordia University, the University of California at Irvine, and Kennesaw State University.

Karen holds a bachelor's degree with a concentration in accounting from the University of Michigan and a Juris doctorate degree from Whittier Law School.